

Undocumented Student Support Mentoring Program

Undocumented Student Support Mentors are undergraduate students with special training and knowledge about the needs of DACA and undocumented students. Undocumented Student Support Mentors provide walk-in and individual consulting on strategies to support undocumented, DACAmented, or TPS students on campus.

Mentors hold weekly office hours during the school year at various locations across campus. No appointment necessary.

For more information or to schedule a one-on-one meeting, email: undocumented@illinois.edu.

Supported by the Office of Vice Chancellor for Diversity, Equity & Inclusion and La Casa Cultural Latina.
